

Cardinals Set Season Record for Hits in One Game

Ruth Duplicates Home Run Feat of Bill Bradley

The lowly Cardinals set the season's record for the most hits in a game by slugging the Boston Red Sox for twenty-three safe ones in a game.

"Irish" Meusel, of the Phillies, went on a batting spree that lasted thirteen games, until Fred Eller, of the Reds, arrested him, the run of hitting yielded eighteen hits in fifty trials for 360.

Lee Magee had hit safely in twelve games in a row when Joe Oeschger, and "Mule" Watson halted him. Magee punched out twenty hits in fifty-one trials for 360. George Gurnea quit to Jeff Tesse after a hitting streak that endured eleven games, during which Gurnea got seventeen safe ones in forty-four attempts for 386. Garry Cravath, of the Home Run King, came through with his first homer for this season.

"Bullet" Miller beat the Giants last Monday. It was their first Polo Grounds defeat this year. The Pirates, by stealing nine bases of the Cardinals in one game, set this season's record for bases pilfering in a game. Bradley Hoge stopped both Heinie Zinn and Art Hirsch after both had hit safely in six games. Two former American Leaguers got five hits each in a National League game this year. Lee Magee and this week Marty Kavanagh, Jack Smith and Jimmy Smyth, of the Cards, had scored runs in five successive games when the Robins halted them.

Milton Stock had scored runs in six games straight, when stopped by Reds. Leslie Mann got four hits in a game. Zack Wheat quit to Lee Meadows and Gene Packard after hitting safely in eight straight games. Zack got ten hits in twenty-three trials for 435.

The following players are on unbroken streaks of hitting: Heinie Groh and Ivy Wingo, of the Reds, and Jimmy Dickinson, of the Robins, have hit safely in their last ten games.

Fred Merkle's rise to the top rung of the batter's is due chiefly to the longest hitting streak that is on at present. In the last eleven games he has played Fred has got one or more hits, coming through with twenty safe blows in forty-two trials for an average of .470, and he is still on it.

The batting record of the National League for the first seven weeks of play follows: Games, 332; at bat, 10,562; runs, 1,193; hits, 2,761; stolen bases, 333; per cent, .262.

Glasgow Soccer Clubs Raise $20,000 War Fund

GLASGOW, June 8.—Twenty thousand dollars added to Britain's war funds by the soccer clubs of Glasgow is the result of their efforts in the season of 1917-18, which has just closed. Having survived four seasons of football since the commencement of the great war, the clubs have made a splendid rally and subscribed the largest amount since 1914. The various war and charitable games contested last month attracted large crowds, two games between the famous Rangers and Partick Thistle and Queens Park and Clyde alone netting $5,000.

Coast College Decides To Continue Football

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8.—The Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Athletic Conference has decided to continue athletics this year, and every member of the conference will have at least one football game with each member, according to plans announced today.

All the colleges and universities except Stanford University, which has dropped intercollegiate activities for the period of the war, will adhere to this plan.

Glen Ridge Players In Nine-Hole Competition

A nine-hole selected score competition was played yesterday at the Glen Ridge Country Club. The winner was H. E. Miller and R. C. Thompson were tied in second place, with scores of 35-4-31, while the next three were made by W. J. Wooster, 37-4-33, and H. G. Cordley, 37-4-33.

Hartman Gets Lead In Brooklyn Tourney

Ingo Hartman was the only player to reach the fourth round in the Brooklyn championship singles tourney, which got under way at the Terrace Club, of Flatbush, yesterday. In earning this high position Hartman disposed of Allen Behr, a rather surprising victory by a score of 6-3, 6-2, 6-0.

Behr was unable to cope with his rival's speed after the first game, which went to Behr on an early lead.

Fox Hills Players Win Match Against Bogey

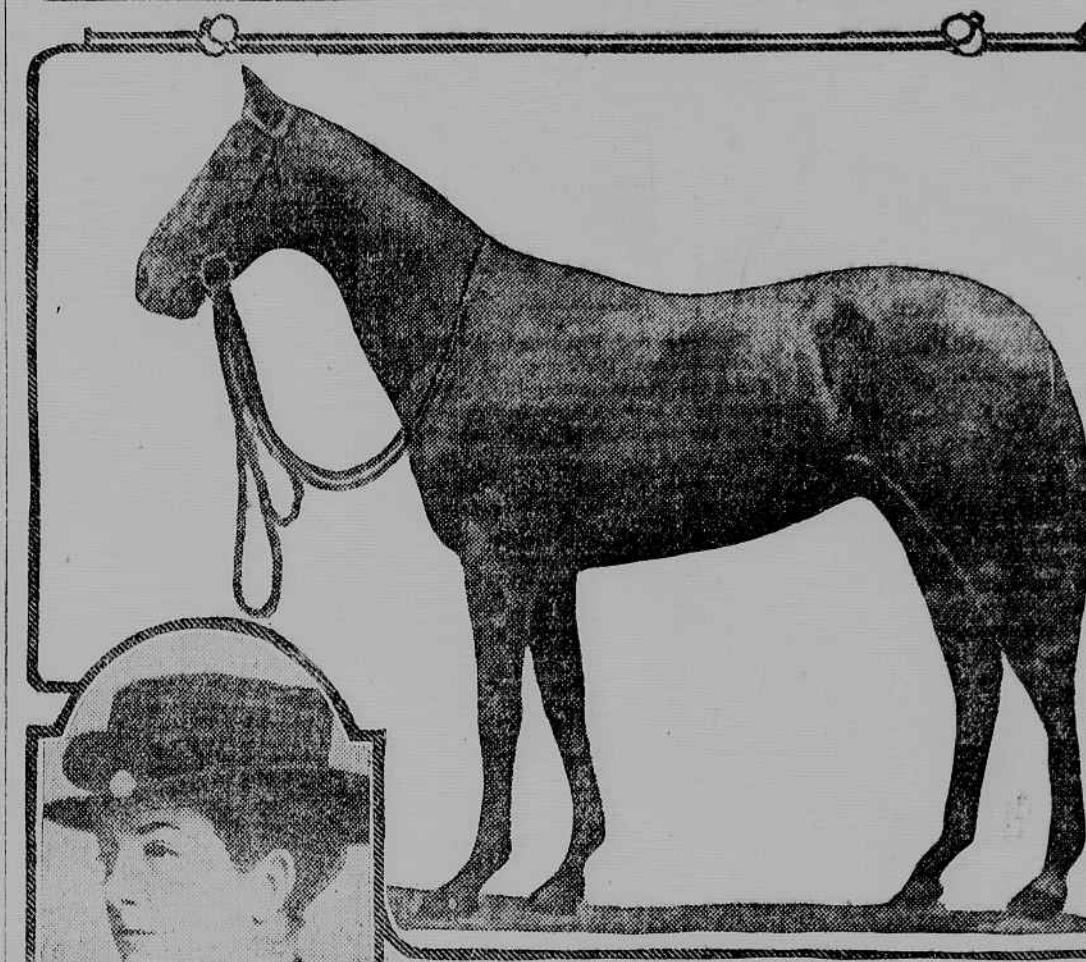

A field of about 120 of the members of the Fox Hills Golf Club competed yesterday in a match against bogey for war saving stamps.

The winner was E. B. Riley, who finished 8 up on bogey. Mr. Mitchell was second, 8 up, while A. F. Kammer and A. C. Cary were each 1 up.

Sing Sing Nine Beats Tars

OSISING, June 8.—Ensign Polk's baseball team of seamen from the U. S. frigate at Peckskill played the Mutual Welfare League baseball nine in Sing Sing prison today. The seamen, who brought a lot of packages to root, lost 6 to 2. Several hundred prisoners saw Captain Collard's nine employed.

FOR the first time in 138 years a woman owner has won the English Derby, and she is Lady James Douglas, shown here with her great colt Gainsborough, who won from a field of thirteen starters. Lady Douglas, who was formerly Mrs. Richard Hennessey, bred the colt herself and she offered him in the yearling sales with a reserve of $10,000, but he failed to entice a single bidder at that price. Then the owner decided to keep him and he developed so well that rising his two-year-old season she determined to race him, with the result that he won one race last year. In the early spring he was reported to have developed into a smashing colt, and the report turned out to be true, for Gainsborough won the two thousand guineas in a canter.

Midshipmen Made Splendid Records in All Sports

Report Shows Naval Academy Had Best Year in Athletics

ANNAPOLIS, June 8.—A very successful season in spring athletics at the Naval Academy is indicated by the official report of the work of the lacrosse, baseball and field and track teams and the crew, which comprised the branches in which the midshipmen engaged during the season just closed. In connection with the fine work of the football team last fall and the good showing of all of the branches of winter sports, gymnastics, wrestling, basketball and fencing, there is little doubt that it has been the Academy's best year in athletics, and it is also worthy of note that for the first time in the era of modern competitive athletics every branch of sport was directed by a professional.

Every match was won by the lacrosse team, which had but one point scored against it during the season. The baseball nine won fourteen of its seventeen games, losing only to Holy Cross, Swarthmore and North Carolina State, and winning its last eight games. The field and track team won by a large margin, and the crew team won from the University of Pennsylvania and Lehigh and lost to the University of Pittsburgh.

Defeated in Close Race.

The crew was defeated in a close race early in the season by the University of Pennsylvania, but more than any other crew, they were victorious in the senior event of the regatta of the American Rowing Association, on the Severn River, near Annapolis. Bryant and Murray are the only crew members left by graduation. Next year's captain will be Mason D. Harris, of Massachusetts. The letters and numerals for rowing have been awarded. The "N" with crossed oars, for participation in the final race, was won by Bryant, Murray, Allen, Bairrich, Crawford, Harris, Ingram and Skinner. The "N" for rowing in another race than the final was awarded to Post and Sykes. Rowing numerals, for the first time, were awarded to the crew, were won by Litchfield, Graves, Board, Stewart, McKinney, Wiedman, Jacobini, Trannell, Tower, Rensenger, Melver and Maspire.

These received the "N" for baseball: von Heimberg, Olsen, Doyle, Wheelch, Blakeslee, Bolton, Sproul, Cloughley, Milner, Pino and Stubbs. The "N" for field and track was won by Allen, Otis, Burdick, Berner, Davis, Hart, Hintze, Pearson, Perry Markell, Mayberry, Meneciewicz and Porter. The "N" for proficiency with the rifle was awarded to members of the team who qualified, though no outside competitors were held this year. Those who won it are Schofield, Hungerford, Cushman, Rathbun, Isgrig, Neilson, Miller, Sellaway, Madeira and Turner.

Blakeslee New Captain.

The captaincy of the baseball nine for next year has been conferred on Victor P. Blakeslee, of Massachusetts. He played centerfield last season. H. F. Hillenkoetter is manager. Hilyer F. Gearing of Annapolis, Md., who played a fine game on the attack, has been selected as captain of the lacrosse twelve. K. S. Reed is manager. Captains and managers, the captain being first named, have been selected as follows: Gymnastics, L. Y. Mason, C. Otis, Burdick, Berner, Davis, Hart, K. S. Woodard, swimming, W. B. Goring, R. M. Graham; fencing, G. C. Cadman, Campbell Elmer; tennis, William Hibbs, F. L. Johnson; rifle, V. F. Rathbun, R. G. Miller.

Shea Wins Race By Inches in N. Y. A. C. Meet

Pittsburgher Takes 440-Yard Event in 50 2-5 Seconds on Slow Track

By A. C. Cavanaugh

Mythical German troops were put to rout in every skirmish on the Travlers Island grounds of the New York Athletic Club at Pelham Manor, N. Y., yesterday, where the organization featured its centenary celebration with a military and athletic programme. Uncle Sam's boys in blue and khaki gave a thrilling example of their work and went through their maneuvers with such zest that the spectators did not have to leave much to imagination.

The military attraction occupied a prominent part of the day's festivities and was watched by a tremendous crowd that packed every nook and corner surrounding the club track. With the women bedecked in varicolored costumes and the white togs of the navy boys and khaki of the soldiers conspicuous, the scene was an impressive one.

Many prominent officers of both branches of the service were present. The drill and exhibitions and parades were reviewed by Colonel J. C. F. Tillsen and staff.

Women Won Applause

Among the units to perform were the Pelham Bay naval reserves, Fort Jay, Company A, 22d Infantry, and the Women's Motor Corps. The women earned the greater amount of the applause. They went through their drill and marched with the skill of veterans. Their good showing earned them a silver cup, which they in turn presented to the Home Defence Band of the New York Police Department for its drill. The flags of the Allies were conspicuous in the parade, and in several instances natives of the countries they represented bore the colors.

Frank Shea, the Pittsburgh College student who won the 440-yard championship last Saturday, gave a brilliant exhibition in winning the first division of the 440-yard handicap race. This event contained so many entries that the club decided to split it into two races. Shea started from scratch in the first heat, and although forced to run on the outside of his field from the start, just managed to win by inches.

Shea Made Slow Time

The time announced for Shea's effort was 50 2-5 seconds. This was disappointing in view of his many faster efforts. However, the track was soft and slow from rain, and Shea was also forced to cover much extra ground by running on the outside of the course. Immediately after the gun, Shea dashed to the front, but he was not out of the backstretch when he was reached that he showed his true speed. He improved his position from fifteenth to seventh, and at the head of the finishing stretch was in third place.

Shea succeeded in coming abreast of Bert Schwarz, of Dickinson High School, in the final yards from the tape. The college champion then faltered for a moment. However, he recovered himself quickly, to finally gain the lead by inches in the last two strides.

Frank Shea, of Dickinson High School, was the victor in the 440-yard race. He was a walk-over in the second heat, but he was not out of the backstretch when he was reached that he showed his true speed. He improved his position from fifteenth to seventh, and at the head of the finishing stretch was in third place.

Shaw Badly Beaten

Charley Shaw, Columbia's new half-mile champion, failed to come through a winner in his first assignment from scratch. Shaw was decisively beaten in fact, so much so that at the end of the finishing stretch he gave up the task and trotted home.

The winner was Jack Sellers, New York Athletic Club, who started from scratch. Sellers ran his best judged race of the season, to easily by eight yards. He began to increase his advantage early, and as the field rounded the final turn was in the lead. The big man in the race, who failed to survive the final heat in the century sprint. The big man in the race, who failed to survive the final heat in the century sprint. The big man in the race, who failed to survive the final heat in the century sprint.

Women to Hold 1-Day Meets on Arcola Links

The Arcola Country Club has extended the use of its links to the women on the fourth Friday of each month throughout the remainder of the season. There will be a thrift stamp sweepstakes held on such occasions under the auspices of the women members of the Arcola Club, and all the women in this section of the country who are eligible to compete are invited to attend.

A forerunner of this series of open handicaps will be Women's Metropolitan Golf Association one-day tournament on June 28, at the Arcola Club.

After the big four-day Red Cross tournament at the Arcola Club, beginning tomorrow, the next one-day tournament of the Women's Metropolitan Golf Association will be on Monday, June 17, at Glen Ridge.

The big event today will be the 36-hole professional match between George McLean and Gil Nickolls, over the Apawamis Club links for the benefit of the Red Cross. These men are well matched in skill and it is like tossing a coin as to which will win at any time they meet. It will be the third 36-hole match they have played in succession, and will be just as interesting as either of the others.

Pairings For Women's Title Golf Tourney

One of the best schoolboy baseball records in greater New York was produced by the Brooklyn Prep nine, which won twelve out of fourteen games played this season. In the last three years the Crown Heights players have won forty-two games and lost five. This year's records were made through the managerial and coaching ability of William McEntee and the pitching and batting efforts of Jake Hehl, who twirled Brooklyn Prep to ten victories this year, losing none.

A feature was the batting of Andy Eschmann, who plays shortstop, pitcher, catcher, and acts as captain. The two defeats credited against the team were made through the absence of Hehl and the weakness of the reconstructed nine in games against Peckskill M. A. and the St. John's Prep nine.

Brooklyn Prep batted .323 to its opponents' .161. In the sliding averages Brooklyn Prep leads by twenty-four points, with a .914 average. In the fourteen games played the Crown Heights youngsters clouted out 150 hits, scoring 124 runs, 98 of which were earned. The average per game is 9 runs and 11 hits.

Is Leading Team of City

The strength of the pitching staff has made them the leading high school team in New York City. Jake Hehl, the star pitcher, is credited with ten of the team's twelve victories. He pitched a total of 83 innings, allowing 46 hits and 9 earned runs. He batted 21 batsmen and retired 83. His batting also helped him in his victories, clouting the ball for an average of .404.

Hehl succeeded in getting 19 hits and 8 runs in 47 times at bat. He is being sought by President Charles H. Ebbs of the Brooklyn Dodgers and is practicing daily on the grounds of the Brooklyn National League team.

The effectiveness of Walter O'Rourke, third baseman, and Andy Eschmann, all-around player, in batting has pulled the Crown Heights team out of a hole many a time. In a recent game Eschmann clouted out a homer with three on bag with the score against Brooklyn Prep. Both boys will play for Holy Cross next year.

Eschmann tops the list of batters with an average of .404.
